HAPPINESS IS. . . .

. . .Getting the first serve in.

WRIST AND THROAT

The prospect of President Ford's pardoning some 48 Watergate-related individuals, convicted, indicted or indictable only reintroduces the issue.

Timing of pardon for the former President is difficult for people to understand, but eliminating double standard pardon policy, if that is the reason, by wholesale pardon is no way to reassure this country justice or mercy is being done.

As one observer said, handling of the Nixon pardon cut the new President's wrist. And considering wholesale pardon for everybody else is asking to cut one's political throat.

Cameron's Folk Fete dancers are scheduled to appear at the third annual Folklife Festival Sept. 12-15 in San Antonio.

Twenty-six ethnic groups will be represented by dance, singing and instrumental groups at UofT San Antonio's Institute of Texan Cultures and HemisFair Plaza.

The local dancers will be appearing for the third year at what has been called the largest block party in Texas.

OBSCURE FIELDS

Turkish opium farmers aren't too concerned about making money on their crop. The horrors of drug addiction are far removed from Poppy fields or whatever they call the opiate plants in Turkey.

A Turkish farmer can sell a kilo of opium on the open market for about $80 American, Reuters News Agency says, while the same amount can sell to a drug trafficker for a $1,000.

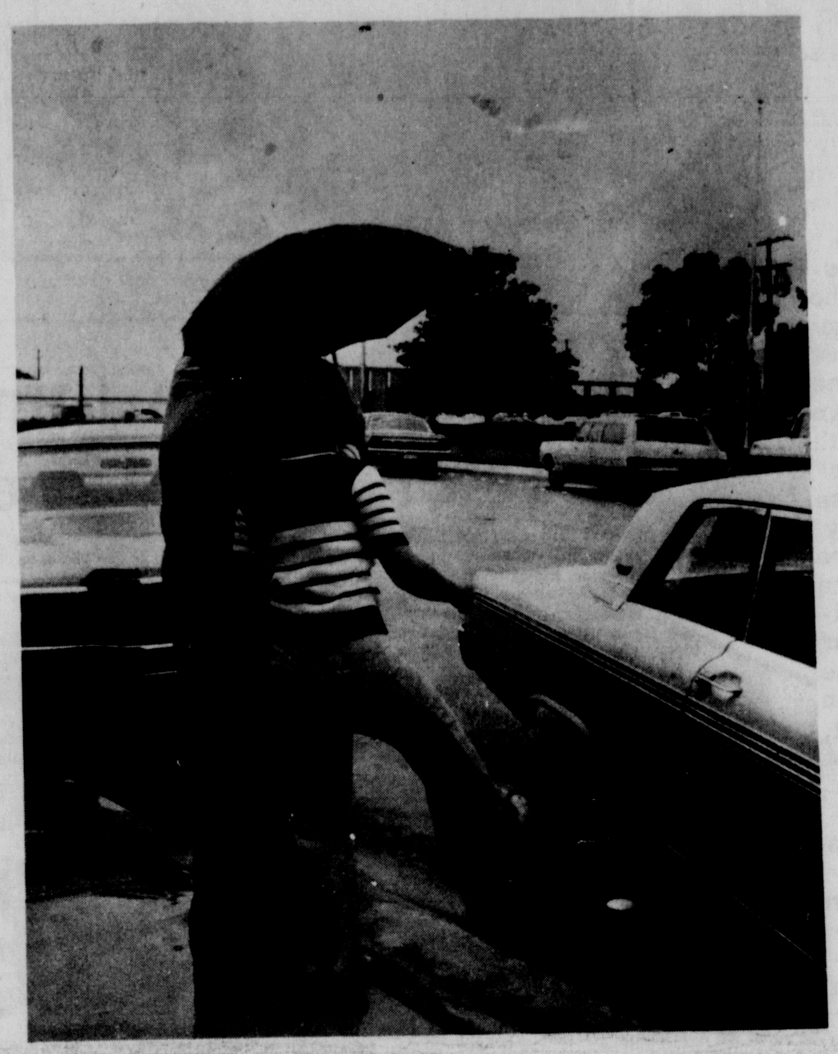
If that were the end to the markup, it would be expensive stuff. But by the time the French underworld processes stuff into a kilo of heroin, it has gone to $5,200 American.

That's 65 times the original market price, which of course is what keeps the stuff growing in obscure fields in Turkey.

Gun Score: 1 Dead, 1 Maimed



A DYING HURRICANE Carmen, had countians sloshing around, jumping puddles at curbs, and unfurling umbrellas this week. The storm dumped about 2 inches of rain in the local area. Heaviest rains came Sept. 10 - just 53 years to the date after heavy rains of 1921 caused Little River's greatest flood. Between Taylor and the mouth of the San Gabriel (south of Cameron) 65 people drowned and thousands of head of cattle were lost.

'Wild Car' Hits Man In His Front Yard

Death by self-inflicted gunshot wound was ruled by Cameron Justice of the Peace Jess Brock in the Monday death of a Sharp youth.

James Clark, 18, of the Sharp community, was found dead at noon in his parents yard in Sharp. He was shot once in the right temple with a 12-gauge shotgun, Sheriff Carl Black said.

James had enrolled for college at Georgetown and his parents knew no reason for his suicide. The family had recently moved to Sharp from Houston and were living on a farm.

Funeral was held at 11 a.m. Tuesday at Phillips and Luckey Funeral Home in Rockdale, the Rev. James Mitchell officiating.

Survivors are his stepfather and his mother, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Bailey of Sharp; his father, Billy Clark of Houston; two brothers, Neal Clark and Kelley Clark of Sharp; and his grandmother, Mrs. Hazel Clark of San Gabriel.

A local resident was injured Saturday evening when a car went out of control and struck him while he was in his yard, according to Cameron police.

Another police report was that of a local man who accidently shot himself in the leg while watching television around 9 p.m. Saturday.

The victim was Bob Conover, who was taken to a local hospital by police for treatment of a gunshot wound in the leg. He was released after treatment.

Cezar Bookman was taken to Newton Memorial Hospital for treatment of a leg injury after a car driven by Muriel Lane of Cameron went out of control in the 1500 block of West 8th about 6:30 p.m. Saturday and struck him.

Bookman was later transferred to Scott and White Hospital at Temple for further treatment.

The woman was ticketed for having no drivers license and for failure to maintain control of a vehicle.

Kestenbaum To Head CofC Drive For New Members

Working with Young will be: Monroe Fuchs, Jimmy Bledsoe, Jim Camp, Gene Smitherman, Bill Burns, William Kelm, Mildred Thornton, Jimmy Woodum, Bill McCutchen and James Hudson.

Jury Dismissed In Martinez Murder Trial

BELTON

A mistrial was declared Friday night in the Ignacio Martinez murder trial following a jury's deliberations for more than 10 hours in the 27th District Court.

Martinez was on trial in the February 10 slaying of his son-in-law, Ruben Vegas, 26, of Cameron, at the Martinez farm seven miles west of Rogers.

Judge Don Busby dismissed the jury at 11:55 p.m. Friday after the court was told that the jury was deadlocked in the trial of the 57-year-old Rogers man.

The jury informed the court that the first vote taken about 2:30 p.m. was six for conviction and six against and the nine-man, three woman jury voted the same way in their final ballot.

A spokesman for the district attorney's office said he felt sure the state will ask for a new trial date in the case and re-try the case as soon as possible.

Testimony began in the trial last Tuesday after a jury was selected and the trial was recessed over the Labor Day weekend.

Martinez took the stand in his own defense during the trial and admitted shooting Vega with a pistol and then going to a pickup truck to get a rifle and shooting the victim again.

The defendant said he was afraid of Vega and thought he was going to be attacked.

The defense introduced an unsigned letter into evidence which threatened the Martinez family if the daughter did not return to her husband. The letter was written in Spanish, and Martinez did not read the letter but testified that his wife had told him of the threat.

The state's attorneys, Bob Odom and Troy Hurley, contended the letter had not been traced to the victim.

The defense called neighbors of Martinez and Milam County Sheriff Carl Black and Cameron Justice of the Peace Jess Brock to testify as to the character of the defendant and the victim.

Commissioners OK City Waste Site

County commissioners at a regular meeting Monday approved a waste disposal site for the city of Cameron as requested by Mayor Gene Blake.

They also approved the 1975 county budget as amended with salary increases. A public hearing will be held on the increases at a later date before the budget goes into effect in January.

Commissioners passed a resolution authorizing a contract between the county and Maurice Love for the preparation of a delinquent tax roll.

Trustees Hear School Reports, Cite Kindergarten Crowding

Cameron schools have 1,658 students enrolled, a few less than last year, principals reported at a regular meeting of the board of trustees Monday night.

The board heard reports on enrollment and other items from principals Bob Martin, Bill Huffman, and Jack Chubb. Another report came from Maxie Morgan, Title Program director and media center director.

Trustees also accepted old Yarrellton school property, approved purchase of buses, and voted to put the classes back to the long schedule for the rest of the year.

Martin told of crowding in the kindergarten units in which 76 students are being taught in two classes. He has 116 attending in first grade, 131 in second, 141 in third, 140 in fourth and 143 in fifth grade.

ENROLLMENT DOWN

Chubb said enrollment in high school is down from last year with a total of 477 which includes 162 freshmen, 125 sophomores, 102 juniors and 88 seniors.

Chubb noted that new band director Jerry Bartley has "stepped up the pace of the band and students are enthusiastic."

A total of 435 was reported by Huffman with 165 eighth graders, 143 in seventh grade and 127 in sixth. He outlined the junior high school curriculum which includes, besides the "three Rs," Latin, Spanish, Choir, Leathercrafts, Arts and Crafts, Speech, Health and Rock Crafts.

The athletic program at O. J. Thomas offers track, football, basketball, volleyball and tennis. Emphasis is put on spelling, poetry, number sense and ready writing for UIL competition.

In other business, the board accepted the transfer of two acres of land at Yarrellton which was the old school property, and agreed to put up a historical marker at the site of the school.

School Supt. Buddy Dulin said he has many complaints about the condition of some of the school buses, and recommended purchase of two new buses -- a 72-passenger and a 66-passenger. He noted that nine months to a year is required for delivery after the buses are ordered. He agreed to check with schools that use buses with automatic transmission for possible use by Cameron.

NEW SCHOOL HOURS

The long schedule for school will start Monday, with classes starting at 8:30 and ending at 3:45, except for classes that let out a little early for bus students.

Trustees approved hiring Bill Van Cleve for ag, Rosemary Freeman and Myrtle Kelley for Title 1 program. A leave of absence was granted to Barbara Walker, who is a special education teacher.

Planting of the flower bed in the Yoe High horseshoe was discussed, with trustee Bill Hornung suggesting that the bed be paved to widen the driveway and the center be planted with flowers or shrubs. A fund for the project in memory of the late Hilliard Thomas now has $337 total.

Trustees John Henderson and Dana Kestenbaum suggested some sort of recognition for scholars, such as a sweater. Recommendations are to be made at the next board meeting.

Board also discussed the enrollment of a student who has been charged in a shooting incident and agreed he should not be allowed to enroll. Trustees said the school policy should contain a clause about enrollment of students charged with felonies and Supt. Dulin will make a recommendation at the next meeting for a policy addition.

Principals List School Hours, Lunch Periods

Cameron schools will go back to its regular long schedule starting Monday and principals have listed times for classes to start and for lunch hours.

Ben Milam - Doors will open at 8:05 and classes will start at 8:30 a.m. Kindergarten and first grade will go to lunch from 10:45 to 11:30. Second grade lunches from 11:15 to 12. Classes will dismiss at 2:30 p.m. Parents of all town students are encouraged to pick up their children at 2:30 and buses will run at 3:35.

Ada Henderson - Doors will open at 8:05 with classes starting at 8:30. Lunch will be from 12:07 to 12:52. Dismissal time is 3:30 and all non-bus students may leave. Buses will run at 3:40.

O.J. Thomas - Classes will start at 8:30 with the lunch period from 12:05 to 12:55. Classes will dismiss at 3:25.

Yoe High - The first bell will ring at 8:25 with classes starting at 8:30. Lunch will be from 12:05 to 12:50. Classes will dismiss at 3:45.

LEADING THE Yoe High Band in its performances at this season's football games are drum majorettes Merri Huntsman, left and Toni Tumlinson.

Kubiak Asks Probe Of High Meat Prices

The widening disparity between the very low price cattle producers receive for their efforts and the very high price that same piece of beef is bringing in the meat market will be the subject of an exhaustive investigation, if the Agriculture and Livestock Committee agree to Rep. Dan Kubiak's request for the probe.

"I have formally made this request to the chairman of that Committee, Rep. Joe Hubenak," Kubiak said, "and I have asked him to convene his Committee as quickly as possible. I don't believe the consumer or the cattle raiser can wait any longer to learn why the price of beef is being driven up so high while the cattle raiser continues to lose money."

Kubiak stated these basic premises:

--That it costs about 31 to 35 cents per pound to raise, feed and get a head of cattle to market;

--But that in return for this, the cattle raiser makes about 24 cents per pound;

--And, that when that same beef is sold in the grocery store, the housewife is paying sky-high prices, very often more than a reasonable profit margin would allow.

"Something is drastically wrong somewhere and I think everyone will benefit if we find out the exact costs of this hole procedure," Kubiak continued.

"It looks to me there are just too many 'middlemen' before the meat even gets to the market who are reaping the high profits at the expense of the consumer and the cattle producer," he said.

Kubiak said he told Rep. Hubenak when he asked him to investigate the disturbing discrepancy, "it is as American as apple pie to have beef on the dinner table, but if this situation gets any worse, about all we will be able to afford is a main course of apple pie."

Kubiak said he will keep Central Texans posted both through news releases and through his legislative report on the status of the investigation.

'Gutsy', Poorly Timed...

115 called it before the President announced it, the pardon of Richard M. Nixon, and during the gestation of this historic decision, even while Leon Jaworski was estimating prosecution would consume a year preparing for any indictment or trial.

No one quite expected a pardon before the public record on Watergate was fleshed out in the prospect of a Nixon trial. But Congress passed the buck to Jaworski, whose anticipated year 'til trial passed the decision to Gerald Ford.

The former president's attorney called the decision "an act of mercy." Mercy is not the same as justice.

And justice is what critics from both parties and the public will say has been thwarted by a pardon before a trial, such as those for Nixon surrogates and former aides.

Citizen Nixon will appear in the Ehrlichman trial as witness and is still subject to state civil suits, such as disbarment or tax questions.

It will reflect on GOP recovery chances in November elections in the off-presidential year. It will end any honeymoon between White House and Congress and start annulment of any such marriage.

Gerald Ford tried to equate justice for the former president with amnesty for young Americans who refused to serve in Vietnam who went to Canada and elsewhere. Youth are the first to question Nixon's motives and methods in winding down the war and dealing with campus unrest. Ford proposed amnesty, and was even supported by Ted Kennedy, in separate speeches, before a convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. VFW delegates weren't buying either appeal, but youth of the campus 60s, numbering in the millions, were listening.

One thing may have clinched the timing: Jaworski's people said "no new bombshells" were contained in tapes and documents recently reviewed. And these Nixon memoranda are available for public examination for three years.

President Ford was enjoying at this juncture public support above 70 percent with only 3 percent against him. He saw the pardon he ultimately would grant best granted now.

If the issue of justice is raised as a latecomer in the general election, Republicans will be running against double standards and Democrats.

Gerald Ford's decision was "gutsy", but poorly timed for a system still in trouble.

More Believable...

Evel Knievel didn't do bad, though he rode his rocket to rocky bottom of Snake River, Idaho's gorge.

He did good, about $9 million worth, promoters said of Knievel's failure to reach the other side.

The rocket designer said it was faulty design which caused the premature deployment of the parachute. The vehicle fell short of Snake River, where Knieval said he would have drowned.

Closed circuit television and other promotions grossed $21 million for Kneivel's 60 percent of $9 million of net.

If it wasn't the biggest puton of the century, it was easily the most lucrative.

It makes Lindbergh's heroic flight and Rickenbacker's "Flying Circus" and other air daredevils financially incompetent by comparison.

But they were more believable.

Clayton Stakes Claim To Votes For House Speaker

Rep. Bill Clayton, moving fast to roundup votes over the Labor Day weekend, staked claim last week to more than 100 votes in the House Speaker's race.

With 76 the minimum needed to win, Clayton, a 45-year-old farmer and rancher from Springlake (population about 300) in Lamb County, indeed, appeared to have the speaker's job racked up.

But Rep. Carl Parker, 40, of Port Arthur refused to concede defeat.

Rep. Fred Head of Athens set the stage for Clayton's apparent victory by withdrawing from the contest and throwing 15 votes to the West Texan.

While Parker was still checking the pledge cards, Rep. Jim Nugent of Kerrville also withdrew and announced — along with 14 others—he would back Clayton.

Then, Rep. David Finney of Fort Worth released his five remaining backers to do as they pleased.

Parker claimed the Clayton coalition — which includes staunch conservatives, staunch liberals and down-the-middle moderates — is hastily and insecurely glued together.

He said he still hopes to shake it apart by emphasizing to liberals his own voting record, particularly on House reform, minority, labor, consumer and ecology legislation.

Most legislators appeared to agree with Clayton that: "For all intents and purposes, the ballgame is over."

OLD PHILOSOPHER

Dear editor

Inflation reminds me of a famous statement -- I forget who made it -- about unemployment: "When you have high unemployment a lot of people are out of work." When you have runaway inflation you're in for some awfully high prices.

That's all I know about it, but what intrigues me is the attack that's going to be made on this world-wide problem. As I understand it, 700 of the "best brains in the United States" are being called to Washington for a summit conference to figure out what to do about it, all wearing belts I guess so they can tighten them.

I'm not interested at this point in their answers which will range from less spending to more spending, from higher taxes to lower taxes, to stiff wage and price controls to no wage and price controls, but I am interested in finding out who those 700 people are with the best brains in the country.

For instance, will they be selected on a geographic basis? I mean, will they pick the best brains in say a Congressional district or so many per state or will they rub out such lines and just pick the best 700 brains in the whole country? Will it be by professions? Will it include football coaches? Congressmen? And who's going to do the picking?

It's not going to be easy. For example who would you go about picking the best brain in Cameron? What if there's more than one? What if there aren/t any? What if you pick the best brain in the whole county and he can't go to the meeting because he's busy trying to cover an over-draft?

And furthermore, if those 700 top brains have the answer to inflation, how come they've been keeping it to themselves for the last 34 months? Or have they been thinking so hard they didn't know chewing gum is now 15 cents a package, gasoline 55 cents a gallon and sugar $2.60 a pound?

As I see it, the cure for inflation is lower prices, if you're buying, not if you're selling.

Yours Faithfully,
J.A.

INFLATION FIGHTER IDEA

More mileage can be added to the dollar by cooking from scratch. The cost of convenience is getting beyond reason. This may not pertain to working wives, but heat and serve dinners can be cut down by preparing meals the night before, if you happen to work.

As a working wife, I find the weekends to be the opportune time to do some cook ahead dinners. Always cook double and freeze the remaining for another meal. It is relieving, after a day's work to know that dinner is prepared and just needs the final touches. Meals which are very adaptable to cooking ahead are Italian dishes, Mexican dishes and casseroles, as long as your husband is agreeable to having them as a main dish.

FARM and CITY

ETC, ETC

By Johnny Watkins

Have you put your gin pencil to the price of fertilzer and seed lately and compared it to 30 cent calves. It really doesn't make a lot of sense, in fact it is crazy.

One of the things that really doesn't make sense is how our Government leaders are spending our money. Let me give you a few:

First our government is spending millions building a big fertilizer plant in, of all places, Russia. We are in dire need of fertilizer at a reasonable price and they are developing Russian farmers ability to produce; rather than American farmers. Thats stupid.

Let me give you another one that will really burn you good. The Government is selling Egypt 100,000 tons of American grain and they are going to take Egyptian currency for payment and it can only be spent in Egypt. Want to buy a camel?

This sale, according to the U.S. State Dept. was to strengthen the cultural and scientific bonds between the two countries. This trade was made by Treasury Secretary William E. Simon. You would think that a man in charge of U. S. Treasury could trade better than that.

Now let me really raise your ire a little if the above two hasn't already. Remember when the House of Representatives voted down the Land Use Planning Bill by a 4 vote margin this year?

Well along comes a bureaucrat by the name of Russell Train, who heads the most vicious bureaucracy in Washington known as the Environmental Protection Agency who has invoked by Executive Order the entire Land Use Planning Bill that was defeated by Congress. Executive Order means that the President and any other top bureaucratic official can enter an executive order and if not protested within 15 days, it will then become law.

According to Congressman Casey of Texas, this is exactly what Russell Train did. In spite of Congress voting down Federal Land Use controls, just the opposite happened. It went into effect last Monday by means of Executive Order in spite of our elected officials voting it down.

Congressman Casey is furious. He has introduced a bill to rescind the order. His reply to the order was, "We are elected by the people to run the bureaucrats, not let the bureaucrats run us."

Congressman Casey went on to say, "I think it is time for we people elected by the people to live up to our responsibilities".

Mr. Train has already announced that he has hired a bunch of Environmental experts to deal specifically with Land Use Controls.

We haven't really had a voice in running our government for years except by vote and now the threat of bureaucrats taking over and telling us where and how to build, where to bulldoze and just simply run our places, goes a bit too far.

How long has it been since you have written your Congressman and told him what you wanted done or not done? Its too much trouble isn't it---you don't know what to say---let someone else do it ----somebody ought to do something. I've heard them all and now we've got a massive problem.

Thats another ham in the smokehouse.

Livestock Buyer Is Suspended

Winters Fox of Lampasas has been temporarily suspended as a registered livestock dealer for violating financial, payment, and recordkeeping requirements of the Packers and Stockyards Act, the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) said today.

Fox formerly purchased livestock throughout central Texas. He is not operating at the present time.

Fox consented to issuance of the order and waived oral hearing. He neither admitted nor denied the charges contained in an administrative complaint filed by USDA's Packers and Stockyards Administration.

Baby Beef Saves On Food Dollar

If you'd like to eat more beef but can't afford existing prices, there may be an alternative in "baby beef."

According to a livestock and meat specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, baby beef is beef produced from young animals weighing 400 to 700 pounds that have come off pastures where they have been nursing.

"Baby beef was once quite popular in the supermarket, but in recent years the trend has been toward choice heavy beef," points out Woodrow Bailey. "However, the high cost of feedgrains has caused the price of fat animals to jump while young calves coming off pastures have sold for consideably less."

This price differential on August 10 was 20 percent, according to the Texas A&M University specialist.

So, consumers could save that much on their beef dollar by purchasing baby beef instead of heavy beef.

What are the basic differences in the two types of beef?

"The major factor is that there is less marbling--flecks of fat--in the lean--portion of the meat," points out Bailey. "This means that loin steaks from baby beef do not lend themselves to broiling as well as those from heavy beef. But for all other methods of cooking, young beef is excellent. In fact, baby beef is unsurpassed for pan frying."

The specialist encourages consumers to look for baby beef in the supermarket, as some stores are beginning to display it once again. Better yet, check with a rancher or an auction owner and buy a young calf weighing 500 to 600 pounds. Then have it custom slaughtered, cut and wrapped for your home freezer. Often the manager of a local meat processing plant will be able to obtain a calf for you.

4-H Contestants Vanessa Marak and Gery Hollas

4-H Club Elects Contestants

Vanessa Marak and Gery Hollas will represent the Cameron 4-H Club in its 1914 Mr. and Miss 4-H Contest.

As money making projects the club will sponsor a White Elephant Sale on Saturday, Sept. 14, across from the Day Care Center starting at 8 a.m.

On Sept. 20 and Oct. 11 the club will have bake sales at 4 p.m. in front of both banks in Cameron. A car wash is scheduled for Oct. 5 at Barrett's Exxon Service Station.

The club will also sponsor a raffle starting Sept. 12 with the drawing to be held Oct. 11 at 4:30 p.m. at the County Extension Office. Tickets may be purchased from any Cameron 4-H Club member.

Some people try to cure their headaches by rubbing their foreheads with horseradish.

4-H News

By Rodney B. Kruse

Mary Lee Graham presided at the September County 4-H Council meeting held at Rockdale. Gene Garza led the council in the 4-H motto and pledge, with Robin Gray giving the treasurers' report. Activity reports were given by Rebecca Riola on District Dress Revue, Jocelyn Glaser on the Project Fair, Suzanne Sims on Texas 4-H Congress and Club reports by Gery Hollas and Leroy Stephens.

Plans were made for celebrating National 4-H Club week October 6-12. The county awards banquet was set for October 12 at the Methodist Fellowship Hall in Cameron with serving starting at 7 p.m.

At the banquet those 4-H who completed a record book will be recongized along with the adult leaders and the 1974 Gold Star Boy and Girl and Mr. and Miss 4-H will be announced.

Milam countys' $100 pledge to the building of the Texas 4-H Center at Brownwood was sent in.

County Agent's Notes

Fall Armyworms Heading This Way

By Bill McCutchen

Fall armyworms were reported a couple of weeks ago in Robertson County so with good rains and favorable temperature it is quite likely we will have armyworms in bermuda, and small grain pastures soon.

This prospect shouldn't discourage you from planting winter pastures early but you should be watching for armyworms and treat quickly if they are noted.

Fertilizer Substitutes

With the increased costs of regular commercial fertilizers, many products appear on the market with fantastic and unrealistic claims as to their value. Thus customers should beware of such products and should take close note of the label before making a purchase.

The Texas fertilizer law and regulations require that products sold as fertilizer show on the label the percent nitrogen (N), phosphorus (P2)5), potassium (K2)) and other nutrients, if claimed.

Those products which do not indicate specific percentage of plant nutrients should not be purchased for application to soil as fertilizers.

Fertilizers supply nutrients needed for plant growth. Since most soils contain some of all the essential nutrients, plants will grow without fertilization. Fertilizers just make them grow better.

Nitrogen and phosphorus are most often deficient in Texas soils, with potassium being third. Therefore, the primary purpose of fertilization is to supply one or more of these three major plant nutrients.

Wide variation exists between soils as to the levels of available nutrients present. A soil test can provide valuable information about these levels and serve as the basis for determining what nutrients should be in the fertilizer.

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health

Accent on Health

J.E. PEAVY, M.D., Commissioner of Health

Despite the rich bounty provided to us by the land, Texans and Americans in general are described as nutritional illiterates.

Nutrition is a relatively new science. For this reason there is room for misunderstanding, and even intentional misrepresentation. Although much malnutrition is the result of poverty, a full pocket doesn't mean a Health Department.

The focus on the high price of meat has made Texans more aware of their eating habits. But one group of individuals--the food faddists--are willing to pay through the nose (and sometimes through their health) for items no better than those offered in supermarkets.

Like hula-hoops and Nehru jackets, fads come and go. But for some the memory may linger on, since food fads can affect health and the quality of living for a long time.

A big fad at the moment is the weight reduction kick, which is tied in by food faddists with better health and some particular foodstuff which they say can cure all the ills of the believers. Some reducing diets when followed too long, can lead to permanent health problems.

Nutritionists say there is no one particular cure-all food, and they have scientific proof. Faddists, on the ther hand, push hundreds of different contradictory food systems, including the current "organic" food theory.

Many diet or nutrition advocates are opportunists whose major motivations are economic. Some of these persons appear to be sincere, albeit misguided and close-minded in their nutritional beliefs.

A look at some highly-publicized diets gives you an idea of the perplexing situations greeting those interested in dieting--either for weight loss or other health reasons.

The drinking man's diet, Zen diet, grapefruit and egg diet, vegetarian diet, cereal diet, low-protein, high-protein, low carbohydrate diet --are all a part of the present-day food craze, says the Health Department. Some, such as the Zen macrobiotic diet, can result in malnutrition.

And, there are the vitamin and food supplement faddists who push all types of supplement concoctions off on the willing indulger. Vitamin E and Vitamin C, both essential to the body, are among the vitamins being pushed at present.

Dr. Linus Pauling advocated great amounts of Vitamin C to prevent the common cold. Research has failed to substantiate his claim.

The State Health Department says you can get all the required nutrients, including Vitamins C and E through a wise selection of foods. Selecting foods properly will also ensure efficient utilization of the food dollar--something that can shrink rapidly in today's supermarkets. Supplements generally are expensive and unnecessary, unless prescribed by a physician.

The Nutrition Program of the State Health Department says the basic food groups still are the best guide for the average person who needs strength and vitality to meet each day's challenges. These are divided into the milk group, meat and protein group, fruits and vegetables group, and the bread and cereal group. While giving you sufficient energy, these basic food groups also supply the trace elements of minerals which your body needs.

Yoe Band To March At R'dale

During the half-time of the Cameron and Taylor ball game the Yoe High Band paid tribute to the late Francis Cox. The high steppers under the direction of Jerry Bartley were impressive in their marching skills.

Bartley said that he has stressed the importance of Pride in his band and it is visible that the band has responded to his philosophy. It is easy to see that Bartley has instilled discipline in the efforts of each individual member.

The band will travel to Rockdale to preform at half-time and again the twirler time and again the twirlers will be featured in a "Circle Routine" as the band plays "Soul Step."

Mr. Bartley also stated, "the circle routine for twilers seems to be new in the Central Texas area and should provide the crowd a variety of exciting action.

The auction will be held at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday, September 17, at the Cameron Public Library. The public is invited to hear John S. Batte auction off the cakes and pies - and to place their bids for the best desserts offered by the ladies of Cameron.

Prized will be given for; the most beautiful, the most economical, and the most unusual cakes. Anyone can enter, by presenting your delightful and delicious favorite dessert for judging by 1:30 before the acution at 3:30 p.m. The only rule is that participants are not to use commercial cake mixes.

A large number of buyers are expected as well as onlookers who wish to experience an hour of fun.

Mrs. Arthur Bowling, President of the Cameron Delphian Club, or Mrs. Carroll Green, Chairman projects committee will be glad to answer any questions concerning the cakes.

Curing Fall's Decorative Gourds

COLLEGE STA.

Colorful gourds add an imaginative touch to fall decorating--but they must be carefully harvested and cured to prevent decay and discoloration, one landscape horticulturist noted.

He's Everett Janne, with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"They should be picked when fully mature, but before frost, to reduce danger of spoiling during the curing process. The stem will shrivel and turn brown as they ripen."

The specialist suggested cutting the fruit from the vine with pruning shears to retain a short portion of the stem.

To prepare the gourds for curing, wipe each fruit with a cloth dampened in rubbing alcohol. This removes dirt and decay organisms. If the gourds are extremely dirty, you can wash them in warm water with a mild soap or detergent. Use a household disinfectant in the rinse water. Then dry each fruit with a soft cloth.

"Place the clean gourds on a shallow slatted tray or open shelf in a well-ventilated porch, garage or shed, taking care that the fruit do not touch each other. Turn them daily and discard any that shrivel or develop soft spots.

"After the first week of curing, the skin will become hard and tough. The gourds can then be stored in shallow wood or cardboard trays in a well-ventilated room or attic for a minimum of three weeks to complete the curing process," Mr. Janne said.

The specialist advised continuing to inspect them every few days to remove any fruit which shrivel or show signs of decay. Do not store in a damp basement or in tight, unventilated containers, he cautioned.

"You can look for the colors of properly-cured gourds to last three to four months. They will retain their color an aditional month or two if you apply a protective coat of white shellac, floor wax or furniture wax to the dry, completely cured fruit," he noted.

Canadian Bacon?

Canadian-style bacon is not bacon from Canada, but a type of bacon popularized there. Canadian-style bacon is the smoked boneless loin of pork and is processed in packing plants in our country. Almost entirely lean meat, it may be roasted or baked in one piece, or sliced and broiled, panbroiled, baked or panfried.

Wilkinson Receives Degree

James A. Wilkinson 111 of Cameron received his Master of Education degree in Counseling and Guidance from Southwest Texas State University at San Marcos on August 17.

James, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Wilkinson of Cameron, holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in English from SWTSU in 1971. He is a 1967 graduate of Yoe High School and has taught for three years at San Antonio Judson High School.

He will be a member of Judson's five member team participating in a drug abuse prevention and early intervention in public schools seminar Sept. 16-24 held at Bandera.

The program, under the US Department of Health, Education and Welfare, is supported by 1000 federal grants distributed throughout the United States.

Judson High School applied for and received one of the 13 grants given in Texas. As the only staff funded in Bexar County, team members will not act as policemen, but as advisors for students with drug-related problems.

Lamb Outdoors

Marinate or brush with barbecue sauce if you choose, but lamb is great when roasted over the coals to tender, juicy perfection without frills. Or if you're not an outdoor fan, put that leg of lamb in the oven.

SERVICE AWARD goes to Johnny Barrett, (dark shirt), by U.S. Navy recruiting personnel for this area. The recruiters felt that Barnett, with Dr. Pepper Bottling Co., had rendered service above and beyond the call of duty during the Rockdale Centennial. The presentation was made during the recent Youth Rodeo and present were also Bob Reilly, center, head of the Roping and Cutting Club and the sweetheart and junior sweetheart, Marie Spence and Lisa Davidson.

Why on earth would you want to move your checking account to a little country bank?

For one thing, you never have to pay a service charge at Lott State Bank.

We may be country bankers at Lott State, but we know how to treat a friend. And we're not about to charge a friend for the privilege of handling his or her checking account.

You'll have no-service-charge checking without any kind of restrictions. There will be no minimum or average balance for you to maintain. And no limit on the number of checks we'll handle for you free of charge.

More, we'll pay the postage both ways when you want to bank by mail. That way, Lott State is as close as your mailbox.

Most of the time, though, you'll enjoy banking in person at Lott State. For the good, small-town friendliness of Lott. For the extra nice feeling that comes when everybody in the bank recognizes you and makes you feel at home.

Chances are, you'll soon be on a first-name basis with most of us—including the president. And that can be a pretty good feeling too. Especially when you want a loan to buy a new car, a boat or a new home. Or whatever.

Come to see us at Lott State. You'll be going a little out of your way. But we'll go all the way to give you the best banking service you'll get anywhere in the world.

Learning Center Planned For Park

Outdoor learning centers help students learn more. All kinds of subjects can be taught in the outdoors by using "things" nature has provided. Sutdying and learning about nature can be just a small part of an outdoor learning center.

Cameron's City Council has set aside a small corner of Ledbetter Park for this purpose. It will be called "Nature's Acre" and will be developed and maintained by Scout Troops 52 and 191. Conservationists from SCS will provide technical assistance on this project and will continue to promote and motivate the use of these nature centers throughout the country.

Wayne Mann with the local Soil Conservation Service said Biology, English, Math, Art, Agriculture, History, Social Sciences, and other subjects can be taught in an outdoor learning setting much more effectively than in the classroom.

While using the outdoors to teach you are limited only by your imagination according to Mann. For example, a math student can study the metric system by comparing an acre to a hectare, a 100 yards to a 100 meters, a mile to a kilometer and so on.

The biology student could study anything and everything from the smallest microorganism to the largest animal, bird, reptile, or fish.

The art student has something he can feel, touch, smell, hear, and see in order to receive stimuli. Certainly, Botany, Taxonomy, and other studies of plant life are readily available in the outdoors.

Mann emphasized it does not take a large amount of land to develop a learning center. Some have been successful with no more than 1/2 an acre. The larger the area, say 3 to 20 acres, the more students can use it at a given time.

YOUR LAWN

PLANNING AHEAD

"As ye sow, so shall ye reap," says the Bible (Galatians 6:7), and you couldn't ask for better advice on how to create a lawn that will make the neighbors green with envy.

It's important to know when to sow, what to sow, and how to sow.

When. Fall is the best season for sowing grass seed.

Jehovah Witnesses To Hold Assembly

Preparations are underway for the semi-annual assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses in Bryan, September 28 and 29 at the Civic Auditorium and the Witnesses from Cameron are making plans to attend.

The convention theme, as announced by Raymond E. Waldron, presiding minister for the local congregation, is, "What Sort of Persons Ought You To Be?", based on the Scripture at 2 Peter 3:11.

Assembly sessions will begin at 9 a.m. on Saturday and reconvene again at 1:55 p.m. and 6:40 p.m.

Sunday's meetings will begin at 9 a.m. with morning sessions featuring the water baptism of several new ministers. 200,000 new ones have joined the ranks of Jehovah's Witnesses so far this year, retaining their position as the fastest growing religion in the world.

Highlight of the 2-day event will be the public address, 2 p.m. Sunday, on the subject, "What the Near Future Holds," delivered by District Supervisor of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York, Paul D. Moske.

Gospel Singing At Pleasant Retreat

There will be a gospel singing at the Pleasant Retreat Church at Thorndale at 8 p.m. Sept. 16.

The church is located six miles south of Thorndale.

Everyone is invited to come and bring their specials and sing.

Semple To Speak At Convention

The Rev. James Semple, a pastor and active Baptist historian, will be the inspirational speaker at the regional Sunday School Convention in Bryan, Sept. 16-17.

The two-day, three-session meeting at Central Baptist Church is aimed at reaching more people for Bible study and church services and strengthening teaching skills.

The convention will emphasize a 600,000 state-wide attendance goal Nov. 17; a plan for a five percent enrolment increase for five consecutive years and initiation of 100 new Sunday Schools in 100 days, March 30-July 7.

The Rev. Semple, pastor of First Baptist Church in Paris, has served on the Southern Baptist Historical Society and as chairman of the Texas Baptist History Committee.

The Bryan conference is one of 18 being held around the state during September, sponsored by the Sunday School Division of the 2-million member Baptist General Convention of Texas.

IT ENDURES!
Man can build skyscrapers and miles of highways—even go to the moon. But he can't create a tree.
A tree withstands the summer heat and the cold of winter. How many windstorms have buffeted it? How many times has it lost its leaves in autumn, only to be reborn the following spring?
A tree like this has much in common with the Church. It too has endured countless storms and has stood the test of time. And like a giant tree, the roots of the Church go deep. Stability —you can depend on it.

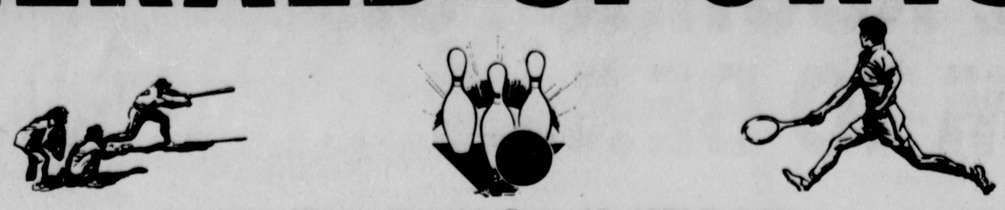
HERALD SPORTS



Sports Spotlight

By Forrest Guess

Cameron has layed claim to the famous 'Victory Bell' for the past 3 years. I know the Tiger team is ready to keep the bell at home.

The game series for the 'Victory Bell' now stands at 11 wins for Cameron and 8 for Rockdale. Coach Fred Johnson in his second year at Rockdale has molded an impressive looking squad this year.

However I can't agree with his philosophy of beating and humaliating another football squad. This man must realize the emotions of his opponents and what their feelings must be. He has, in my opinion, made it very rough on the Copperas Cove coaching staff to reassemble and teach his squad the fundamentals of football other than winning. To glorify his own ego he has jeopardized a complete squad of young men.

I heard you meet the same people going down the ladder as you did going up. So, Rockdale look out, you may someday be on the receiving end of some of your own medicine.

Coach Nelson Huffman had to leave the Taylor football game early last Friday night. His wife Jane gave birth to a boy, Nelson Skeeter Huffman. They are now both at home.

The Yoemen were behind 12-7 when Huffman was called to the hospital.

Cauley stated Monday that the Yoemen played poorly even though they won. Cauley also stated, "Rockdale is tougher, they have a multiple offense and also have 3 outstanding quarterbacks. We (the Yoemen) were lucky against Taylor because they had no depth. This will not be the case against Rockdale, . They have 25 solid players. "Cauley continued to state,"I have alot of respect for Coach Johnson but he has a different philosophy about football. He wants his players to toe the line or hit the road, and his teams consist of 25 dedicated men. If you don't produce you're out of his program."

Cauley gave praise to great defensive effort of Gary Hornung, imphasized that David Fincher and Ricky Kelly were key offensive standouts.

I will say that the Bell will return to Cameron after a close ballgame. The score board at Tiger Field, I predict, will show the Yoemen victorous by 2 points.

Early Teal Season Set

Recent cool spells which brought rains to the parched Texas Panhandle have also pushed the season's first migrant teal and pintails into the state.

The pintails won't be legal for a while but an early teal-only season is set for Sept. 14-22 across the state.

Texas has a resident population of teal which produces some young each year.

Texas Parks and Wildlife Department biologist Bob West of Canyon in the Panhandle says that most of the resident birds in his area are cinnamon teal and despite dry conditions this spring and summer, some of the more stable playa lakes in the area did host local teal and their brood.

"We had a fair crop of young this year," said West "and I look to a good season.

"But with all the rain lately the birds will be scattered. Already some bluewings have moved in with the first wave of pintails."

Jr. High Travels To Rockdale

The seventh grade football team will travel to Rockdale to try for their first victory after being defeated last week. The eighth grade squad is also looking for their first win and will also be in Rockdale. Coach Knight, seventh grade, said he was pleased with the over all effort but a few plays made the difference in their loss.

After being defeated on the road last Thursday the ninth grade squad will play at home. Coach Ken Poole said "we fumbled too many times to win against Taylor but we have worked hard this week and I feel confident we will have a better showing against Rockdale."

The ninth grade game will kick-off at 6 p.m. followed by the Jr. Varsity at 7:30. The J.V. Yoemen beat the Ducks Thursday night 26-0. This good hitting J.V. squad will be looking for their second victory Thursday.

This cause will be aided by quarterback Richard Ramirez and halfbacks Green and Komar.

Two-Day Rodeo Set

There will be a two-day rodeo Friday, Sept 13 and Saturday, Sept 14 starting at 8 p.m. at the Bar-1-Bar rodeo arena at Milano.

Events are bareback riding, tiedown, ribbon roping, barrel racing and bull riding.

Books will open Thursday, Sept. 12 from 8 a.m. until 6 p.m. To enter, call 713-822-6572 at Bryan.

There will also be dancing both nights after the rodeo.

Cougars Ready For First Win

Rosebud - Lott will face West, Friday night at home. The Cougars were defeated in their season opener against Marlin 20-6. Number one rated West found easy victory over Connally and will be tough to stop this week. West has returned 23 letterman from last years squad. This includes 10 offensive and 9 defensive starters.

The VIP is quarterback David Snokhous a two year regular, that tallied 1,046 yards passing. Many of these passes were complete to returning split end Kenneth Taylor who adds talent to this quick team.

It could prove to be a long night for all teams that come up against this top rated West team. Including the Rosebud Lott squad which has been rated number 5 in district 23-AA. Rosebud-Lott returns nine lettermen this year from their 7-3 season last year.

Caldwell To Meet Bellville

Caldwell will face Bellville Friday night at 8:00 in Bellville. Caldwell will be high after their victory over Giddings last Friday.

Bellville the second ranking team in district 20-AA has one of the state's most impressive quarterbacks Jerry Kiemsteadt. Last year Kiemsteadt had 77 completions for 1,055 yards. Another impressive seniors on the Bellville squad is halfback Harold Johnson who ran for 404 yards receiving and 332 rushing.

The total lineup for the Bellville team is strong and ready to play after last years record of 5-5. Caldwell won by one point last week and will have their hands full again this week in Bellville.

It will be a clash of the numbers 2's of Dist. 20 & 23. Both team are rated second in their respective districts.

RING THAT BELL - and that's what Yoemen did last year when they brought the bell home for a year by defeating the Rockdale Tigers. The new bell battle is set for Friday night at Tiger Field, and the bell will travel with the Yoe over the river and hopefully home again.

Battle Of Bell On Tap Friday

Rockdale the 1973 zone champs have 8 offensive and 8 defensive starters back. They play the Yoemen on their home field Friday night starting at 8:00. The Tigers are rated number one in the south zone of district 12-AAA.

This team will certainly be a threat to the very tough Belton team. Among the starters back from last year squad is FB-LB Parker Peebles (6'2", 210, 4.8 speed) who is one of the most impressive backs in the state.

Quarterback John Backhaus will be calling the plays against the Yoemen after an impressive night against Copperas Cove. Halfbacks Henry Beckwith and Odis Mack will be trying to recapture the Bell for the Tigers. As well as a good strong backfield the Tigers dawn a quick and strong line. Tackles Stanley Blinka and Bobby Moore, guard Ronnie Burrough add talent to the potential district champs.

The defense that held Copperas Cove scorless was headed by two able defensive backs, Tommy Shafer and James Lightsey. They too will be looking for a chance to aid in keeping the Bell at home.

Early scientists held that the presence of a magnet robbed iron of its weight and it lifted itself!

Murray-Go-Round

AMAZING DIFFERENCE:

My, how things do change!

Saturday evening, Arkansas' talented but young Razorback football team opens the 1974 season against Southern Cal at Little Rock while the University of Texas meets Boston College in Beantown.

Few seasons back people screamed, with some reason, that Frank Broyles' Hog football teams played sickeningly weak, No-name non-conference opponents.

You know, Wichita State, Northwest Louisiana, North Texas, Tulsa, etal.

At the same time, Darrell Royal's University of Texas Longhorns were annually opening with the likes of USC, UCLA, Oregon, Nebraska, Indiana, California and Oklahoma.

So, what happens?

Broyles gives in to public opinion and schedules Stanford as a 1971 opener, followed by three straight Lid-lifters with Awesome Southern Cal.

Perhaps it is coincidence, but after three straight lopsided opening defeats, it is obvious Arkansas' football fortunes took a turn for the worse about the time Frantic Frank turned away from those opening Sisters.

With Powerful Conference Foe Texas Tech up front, and Oklahoma in the middle, you could hardly say UT has a soft early schedule. But, with Miami, Wake Forest, Boston College and Wyoming replacing the USCs, UCLAs, Nebraskas and Oregons, one has to admit Athletic Director Royal at least softened the load on Football Coach Royal.

QUICKIES:

One defeat does not a season make. But once again, Houston Media People have convinced the Houston U. Cougars of their preseason football invincibility, only to have an underdog let the air out of Bill Yeoman's crew. National Powers don't go around getting beat, 30-9, in season openers, even by an Arizona State.

Ike Forte, the 200-pound halfback jet Arkansas signed out of Tyler Junior College, sounds amazingly like O.J. Simpson. . .Forte, who'd earlier signed an Oklahoma letter, gets mileage out of the story he jilted the Sooners for the Razorbacks when slighted by Sooner Coach Barry Switzer. Seems Barry made the mistake of telling Tyler Schoolboy Super Earl Campbell he should come to OU, "Because we haven't signed a quality back yet." If Ike wanted to really repay the slight, wonder why he did not choose a school like Nebraska, an annual and bitter sooner rival, so he could get at 'em personally?

Rogers To Seek First Victory

Rogers will meet Troy Friday night and will be out to score their first victory in this young 1974 season. Rogers can depend on only three starters from the strong 73 season of 8-2. Rogers fail victum to Bremond last week in the season opener.

The Eagles will face Troy for the first time and will travel to that class B school. Troy had a season record last year of 2-7-1 and will return 15 letterman for the Roger game.

Troy coaches have scheduled four tough class A non-district games to ready th district games to ready themselve for their district themselve for their district The Troy team is reted third under Moody and Holland in district 13-B. The Eagles will face what is basically a young team made up of sophomores and juniors.

Much leadership will be required from the 3 returning starters from the Eagles squad if they are to match the 8-2 season which they tallied last year.

COUPON GOOD SEPT. 12-13-14, 1974.

HAM IT UP WITH BEANS!!!

Although centuries old in tradition, dry beans, peas, and lentils are very modern, up-to-date foods. They are still one of today's best food buys, providing a wealth of energy and nutrition at a nominal cost per serving. In fact, they are one of our most inexpensive protein sources.

One pound of raw, dried beans is about 2 cups uncooked or 4½ cups cooked beans. Look for bright, uniform color as loss of color can mean lack of freshness and a product that requires longer cooking. Uniformity of sizes is also important, as smaller beans cook faster than the larger ones.

You can safely store uncooked beans about a year in a cool, dark place. However, cooked beans and bean dishes should be refrigerated and used 1-4 days or stored in the freezer for a month.

It is necessary to soak dried beans and peas to replace water losses. Sort carefully, discard the broken or damaged beans, and wash before soaking. Then use the soaking water in cooking to minimize nutrient loss. Beans should be simmered gently until tender. Add extra flavor and complete protein by adding small amounts of meat such as ham, bacon or other pork. High acid foods such as tomatoes or vinegar should be added toward the end of the cooking time as the acid may slow softening.

HAM AND BEAN SOUP

1 lb. dried navy beans	1 c. potatoes, cubed
¾ lb. ham, cubed	1 c. onion, chopped
1 clove garlic, minced	½ c. celery, sliced
1 small bay leaf	1 c. carrot, sliced

Wash beans, place in large saucepan with about 2½ qt. water. Bring to a boil, simmer about 2 minutes. Remove from heat, cover and let stand at least 1 hour. Add ham, bay leaf and garlic to beans. Simmer covered for about 2 hours. Add vegetables; season with salt and pepper to taste. Cover and continue to simmer for another hour or until all vegetables are tender. Remove bay leaf and serve with hot corn bread sticks.
